This is a great bar near MSY airport. You have a driving range to shoot with many goals. You have clubs available. Great music. Fun Locals and an owner who will harass and give you an animated history of NOLA and the shipping industry on the river. You also have a great kitchen. Steak night Tuesday and Thursday. They also host Crawshaw, etc. There are more to New Orleans than Bourbon Street. read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Melissa Suthoff doesn't like about St Rose Driving Range:

I thought the food was pretty good, and it was clean, my only complaint is one of the employees was smoking inside the building, I thought smoking was illegal in restaurants, bars and other public places. I was told by one of the other employees that they were one of a few places that could still smoke. So if you smoke this is the place for you, if not stay away. read more. St Rose Driving Range from Saint Rose is the perfect place if you want to sample delightful American courses like burgers or barbecue, here they serve a comprehensive brunch in the morning. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. Moreover, the menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially extensive variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try.
