Awesome stop on an Idaho trip with my mom, brother and his family. Great atmosphere. Very nice staff...that made me want to stay though we came in for coffee and hot chocolate. The food they delivered looked and smelled very good. I would recommend this stop. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What Paige V doesn't like about The Tin Cup: Horrible food. Horrible service. Way over priced for pre bought, pre made frozen food. There was a Long wait for food, even though there were only 2 tables in the restaurant. Food arrived cold. $12 for a puny chicken caeser wrap, $8 for a (small) bowl of canned chili...which the menu claimed to be homemade. Our waitress seemed more interested in sitting down, rolling silverware chatting with the bartender. We had to g... read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: exquisite menus, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, The dishes are usually prepared for you in the shortest time and fresh. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, The customers of the restaurant are also thrilled with the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers.
