What User likes about Kung Fu Tea: Kung Fu Tea has other locations, like in Chinatown. It is hands down my favorite bubble tea in the city. I love that I can customize the amount of sugar and ice. I love their Taro and Earl Gray with extra boba. Yum! Parking: Street read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Kung Fu Tea:

First, the boba was overcooked. But the more important reason I am leaving a review is because when I took a sip of my boba later I tasted what seemed like a piece of plastic. But when I spit it out it was a piece of steel wool!! Which could do some real harm to your insides. Not sure how the boba drink is made or how this piece got in there, but this needs to be looked into before someone gets really hurt. read more. The comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Kung Fu Tea even more worthwhile.
