We went for an early lunch and the food was not very good. To be fair, I don't think the food is the selling point. The atmosphere is very relaxed/casual and the restaurant has a ton of music memorabilia. The artist theme is definitely the focus and that was 100% met. Based on my experience, I'd say this place would be great for appetizers, drinks, and live music with friends. read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the establishment at no extra cost. Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served.

What Blanca Bashirian doesn't like about Starving Artists Bistro:

We were seated right away at a small table which didn't fit four people and a baby with a diaper bag. Then we had to flag our waitress after 20 minutes of waiting. The food wasn't that great for the price they charge. I won't be returning. Food: 1/5 read more. In case you're hungry some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: delicious dishes, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu. It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.

Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large selection of scrumptious and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, For breakfast a versatile brunch is offered here.
