What User doesn't like about Harrisburg Family House:

This was our first time stopping in on our way through Harrisburg. It was somewhat busy but only took about 10mins to seat a family of four. There is a large menu of items so lots to choose from. I ordered the grouper and it was too salty for me and not what I expected for a grilled fish plate as it was very oily. This feels like a favorite spot for people to be in Harrisburg. But we will pass on it next time. read more.
