While living in Albia for a year, I must have had twenty 50/50 burgers. I would say that seventeen were excellent, two were great, and one was just good. I remember that day. I didn't have tons of dough at the time to eat out so I would look forward the day. Those burgers never got old. The staff was always very hospitable and genuinely friendly. The pints were always great. Love the Red. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Albia Brewing Company:

the service and quality were low. we bought homemade root beer there and it was flat. our waitress knew that and didn't tell us. when I asked for it, the explanation the co2 was low. I asked why we didn't say it and she didn't know. the brians burger was excellent. the fries where soggy, but well seasoned. the hot wings had not much taste, not enough sauce. Extra sauce is an additional fee and I passed. the american... read more.
