This was my first experience with a Vietnamese menu. The man who works on the counter was very helpful. He took my meal for me and told me I would like it and I loved it! The flavors were well balanced, so I tasted every ingredient alike. Fresh pork, fresh slices of jalapeno (not pickled), onions, carrots, cilantro, on a freshly baked baguette. He also brought me an ice cream coffee that was really good. It's not too... read more. What User doesn't like about Henry's Cafe And Bakery:

Food is good but the service is basically non-existent. If you want to dine at a restaurant that has decent Vietnamese food and non-existent service, this place is for you, no one checks on you. Btw, you absolutely cannot order anything such as plain rice or plain noodles regardless of how much you're willing to pay because it's not on the menu. Strange, but okay. I'll go elsewhere where they want your business and you... read more.
