we arrived right before the lunch break. our waitress was friendly, helpful and friendly. our eight-headed family was treated like family, and eating was met, and delicious! read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What Anara Rivera doesn't like about La Fiesta:

The doors were locked when the sign said it was open. It was 12:00 when it says it closes at 2. If they're going to do that, there should be a sign at least, poor communication. At least have common courtesy to let people that are not from here, know. read more. Anticipate the varied, tasty Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), Likewise, the customers of the establishment prefer the comprehensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a versatile brunch.
