they give a lot of meat per order, many beside dishes, and the stone pot bibimbap I had was really good. my mother got the cold noodles and said it was good, my sister got a stew (forget that) and said that it was also very good. I am not sure if it was because we went on the day that restaurants did not have to check the vaccination cards, or if it was because it was in general on a Sunday evening dinner. but I was...
