What an interesting place! We stayed in one of the rooms and ate at Larrick's for Sunday brunch. This review will cover only the restaurant. The Tavern was quite empty today, perhaps 6-8 parties spread out in various rooms.

We ate in the oldest room, a small rustic dining room with great exposed beams and decorations. We got very attentive service from Brittany, and I must say that the food was fantastic. I had the B... The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Tina M doesn't like about Wayside Inn Larrick's Tavern:

Had a party of 12 for St. Patrick's day celebration. The reservations were made a month in advance and I had a confirmation of the reservations but the restaurant bungled that! We should have left then! This place was ill prepared to serve people. The food was horrible, The presentation was horrible! The waiter was trying his best but was overwhelmed and no one would help him. We did not get what we ordered in a time... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential.
