I and my daughter had a birthday party last Saturday for my wife with 50 participants. Steve and his staff were very helpful and courteous, the room was nicely decorated, service was excellent, eating was great, and the price was very reasonable. Great place for a private party. The service was very bad. We had a group of 4 people. We waited for over 10 minutes just to get water and longer for drinks while people that came well after us were getting served. Two in our group eventually got food, while the other two got their food as the first two people were finishing their meal. read more.
