All right, better late than never. The menu has probably updated since I was eating again in August, but still worth sharing the beauty. This is my first 2 Michelin restaurant experience and I must say it was worth the experience. I was not disappointed with the aromas. I wasn't let off the portions. In fact, I could almost finish the dessert. I was really surprised and enthusiastic about some of the dishes, like the... read more. Had expected great food and service since it is affiliated with Melisse. Wrong on both counts. Service and food uninspired, most having been pre made. Staff going through the motions. This type of meal wants you to find restaurants where the food, staff and experience are inspired. This meal will give you a terrible memory, especially when you have to think where you could have eaten! read more.
