Stopped here while in town and I highly recommend it. The inside is definitely no frills but you see everything being cooked and it feels very homey. We had savory and sweet crepe dishes and were not disappointed by any of it. The chef was very generous and offered to make any changes that we may want. The location is tricky as it's behind a large shop on W Chocolate Ave, so don't give up on it even if you pass by ac... read more.
