The Menu of Teriyaki Madness from Mesa includes about 16 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $5.7. What User likes about Teriyaki Madness:

I don't know what the other reviews are about. This place was great! I ordered in advance and waited only a few minutes until my food is ready (I was early). The food was delicious, freshly cooked and you can taste the grilled taste. And the portion sizes were enormous! I have plenty left for probably 2 to 3 more meals! I had ordered a drink and was informed that they were unfortunately from cups, but that I could ta... read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Sean Denham doesn't like about Teriyaki Madness:

Got double orange chicken on a $16 bowl. Looks like I have less than a serving of orange chicken. I fit everything I was given into half of the bowl. Seems like I got $8 worth of food. Not $16 read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its visitors, and easily digestible Japanese dishes are being made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat. Of course, the most various products are also used in the most unprecedented combinations and implementations - according to the motto of the Fusion Cuisine in the culinary offer, Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
