This is a great place if you don't want to go in a restaurant. You do a great job here several times. They are fast and friendly. I highly recommend going to this place. And they usually have two soups. A vegan and not. read more. What User doesn't like about Graze A Drive Thru:

Six people working inside this location and TERRIBLE service with three cars that were driving away from the parking lot. The younger workers inside were too involved with their own conversation to see the order we'd placed via text. If it weren't for previous trips here for fresh delicious food and just mediocre service we'd avoid this place forever. The worst part is that several cars or parties who arrived after u...
