After I had a bad experience in another winery, my big group had to change to Wise unexpectedly... Typically because of the popularity of Wise we knew that it was a long shot, a group of 12 without reservation... They had to do some tables for us and after a very short wait they could save the day and take our big party. No problems, no attitude to our big group and were so friendly. Our server was Danielle and she w... read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Carolyn G doesn't like about

Wise Villa Winery:

In past experiences Wise Villa has always been a class act. Unfortunately that is no longer the case. We went in today as a group of six to have lunch and a wine tasting. The lunch was good but EVERYTHING was ala carte including paying for bread for the table. We then went into the tasting room and got three tastings which were already pre-poured and in plastic tasting glasses which looked old and dirty. We've never... read more. Small but fine, this Bistro impresses not only with its ambiance, but also with its assortment of the typical, tasty menus at the typically affordable prices, You'll find delicious South American dishes also on the menu. Furthermore, you'll find scrumptious American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, In addition, the current games or races can be watched on the big TV in this sports bar, which the visitors also love.
