Experience. That's all. We were treated like friends... maybe family. The open cafe, the beautiful ambience were only made by the gracious, warm reception of the owner and the staff... literally every employee... seriously, how do you even find employees this amazing during the post-pandemic times... I don't know, but you did. The experience was fun and informative. The food was spectacular. Every course was special.... read more. What

User doesn't like about Wine Experience Cafe:

I have been here twice as I really wanted to give them a chance. They failed. When busy, Both food and drink are incredibly slow to arrive. The food is cold, incorrectly cooked, and the owner is so busy schmoozing with regulars that he comes across as uncaring and full of arguments. I can list examples but there are so many that I just don't have the energy. My wife, who works nearby, tells me that normally the place... read more.
