I love the diversity that this store carries. Your choice is from the charts. It is a really great place to expand the cooking spirit. You can get objects and ideas from all over the world. Two things to keep an eye on... it smells "worldly" and take a jacket and don't wear sandals. read more. What User doesn't like about Eat More Korean:

I came in the evening of June 30th. The food was good, but the young lady who took orders had a very bad customer service. She didn't greet us, but she was on her phone. We asked her how it is fed in work, and she said they wouldn't eat, but we could order the food and sit there to eat even though it was an hour before closing.

My friend and I both wanted pigs, but they were out. We also wanted Boba, but they were fr... read more.
