Dog friendly Italian restaurant with outdoor dining. I'd recommend reservations because it can get busy. The food was very good, especially the black seafood pasta. There was a generous portion of seafood and the sauce was really tasty. I would have preferred to have the tables spaced further apart (COVID times), but I ate on the early side and was able to avoid having people sitting too close! Next time I'm in Carme... Our first time eating at Basil and we will not return. We spent the entire day in Carmel by the Sea eating breakfast, lunch, dinners, drinks and wine tastings at several different places and they were all fantastic; except here. We did not have time to dine at the restaurant before leaving but did not want to miss ordering our favorite-pasta arrabbiata. We picked it up and could not wait to eat on our way home. To s...
