a must try for tacos! they must have eaten the flour tortillas at some point because I don't remember that they are always like that. they were good, but did not stand too good and fell apart before they could eat their tacos. I love her salsas and queso is great too! read more. What User doesn't like about Great American Taco Company: I only leave bad reviews if they're completely called for and this one makes the cut. The tacos taste pretty good and fresh, but the bang for your buck is way off par. I paid over $7 for ONE taco. It says street tacos at the top of this section of the menu and with street tacos there is usually more than one. Not here. The food is alright, but the value is truly awful (even considering the trying times we are in) read more.
