I have to say they do a great job with children, they brought our daughter two full-colored books, a wand magic wand and more to entertain them. This is a nice touch for what is definitely a family-friendly space. Eating was a mixed bag, 2 of our entrees were good and 2 (both seafood) were not the best. The lobster was made to the point of crispy. However, the app and other two pasta dishes that had our party were ve... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors.
