For both dine in and take out/ drive through I have never really had a bad experience with this place. Food wise I wouldn't rate it as top notch it's not a fine dining sushi place, but definitely not bad. It's tasty and the staff is super nice the atmosphere is always chill and nice. I have been coming here for almost 8 years and I will definitely continue to do so! read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Rico B doesn't like about Kokoro: As a frequent customer of their Arvada location I was excited to come across the Colorado blvd location. That excitement was quickly extinguished. Not only was the service subpar, but they failed to give me basic necessities such as chopsticks, soy sauce, napkins, etc. let alone the sauces for the appetizers were conveniently missing. I'll make sure to go way out of my way to Arvada next time I'm craving Kokoro... read more. A visit to Kokoro is particularly valuable due to the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, among the delicacies of this restaurant are especially the Sushi and Te-Maki. You have a special event and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to prepare healthy Japanese meals.
