We loved this place when we walked through the door. It is a very relaxing with many seating options (barstool, table and high tables). The food was great. The server told me the salads were fabulous and they were exactly that. The bathroom was very clean and organized. This is a big indicator that the kitchen is the same. They also have a wide selection of cheese and wine. We will come back read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Goat Sheep Cow, North:

We were a party of 4. Our food arrived at all different times with long intervals in between. Food tasted fine, not wonderful. It is a nice looking place, loads of potential but staff seemed bothered to serve us at the counter. Want to remind restaurants in the Charleston area with the exception of a few; you are in the service/hospitality industry! Try and remember that when people visit your locations spending their...
