What User likes about Wave Tea: I saw it open when I heard kapiolani. Decided to go since we were at Doraku for dinner. We parked next to the store in front of the containers that dress up the wall of the car. We have a Boba tea and the cups they use are the thickest extender I saw. Def can be reused you have by far also the most beautiful desserts. We have the Guava mousse pie. Delicious, light and airy, not so sweet, but thick in taste and keeps... read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its customers, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Talia N doesn't like about Wave Tea: I went in to grab boba today with a friend around 4:30pm. Sign on the door says they close at 6pm. There are 6+ people in the store (mixture of workers and friends). The open sign is not on, but the door is unlocked. I go in to ask if they are open, but the worker basically tells me they are closed by pointing at the off open sign. I ask why their store hours say till 6pm. The worker let's me know they are closed all... read more. With the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Wave Tea becomes even more attractive, Furthermore, the delicious treats of this restaurant sparkle not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
