What User likes about The Post: Was here at St. Patrick's Day, who obviously slamed, but the staff did a great task to maintain what was really impressive in view of volume. The decor was super cute, very true for Saturday night post. Loved the small details in the hallway for the bathroom and bakery. Only ordered fingerfoods, but they were crisp and tasty, I wished the time to pamper in their brunch menu! read more. As a visitor, you can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Belle F doesn't like about The Post:

I called here on a Saturday to ask if kids were welcome and the place even advertises good for kids. The initial worker that answered the phone said that they are welcome, but never informed me that there 's a 10 pm cut-off. We were traveling far to visit this restaurant. I called again to double check and the male worker was super rude over the phone saying that No kids allowed. I explained that I spoke with someone... read more. At The Post in Villa Park, you get a abundant brunch in the morning and you can eat as much as you want indulge, The guests of the establishment are also thrilled with the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant offers. Following various sports events and competitions is also one of the pluses of visiting this sports bar, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
