I got pork bun appetizer, mai tai and small fried chicken and the total, during happy hour, was $28. That's pretty pricey in my opinion, and perhaps I was overcharged?? In any case, I thought the food and the ambiance was generally pretty good, but the spicy Korean chicken is not even slightly spicy and it was served pretty cool. In addition, there was very minimal sauce. For the price, I was pretty let down. read more. What User doesn't like about Bonchon Pasadena:

Bad quality! A little expensive for lunch. Chicken I ordered taste as heated by the microwave. This location more like a run restaurant all chairs stack feels like they didn't want to eat costumers. Probably not again at this point. Just go to round mills Bonchon much better! read more. Lovers of Korean cuisine are right at home here: The range includes Kimchi, a variety of diverse variations of Bap, alongside a multitude of delightful Jjigae that enchant the taste buds, The inventive fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a nice example of Asian Fusion. The meals are prepared authentically Asian.
