This place closes early. The automated system telling us they were closed came on and my husband replied with "it's not even 8 yet" no one said anything. Drove to the window and an older Filipino man was standing there with the window open looking very upset we were there. He started questioning my husband if he was okay, "you okay man? You okay?" My husband laughed and the older man said no need to get angry. We sai... read more.
