What User likes about Maral Cuisine:

I recommend the chicken coobideh with salad one side of the salmon a la carte. I also lured the white fish and it was great. Her lens soup is also amazing with her small thin pieces of flat bread with butter. Be aware that the portions are massive, I would say that a duck can feed two if you are a small eater. You can at Maral Cuisine from Agoura Hills enjoy delicious vegetarian menus, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, Customers often choose the scrumptious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dunking into the homemade hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the delicious bits of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
