Stopped from this place with the family in an afternoon after recommended by an employee at the local Putt golf course. The place was nice, easy to reach and out, and the food was good and cheap. Although we don't sit in the bar, it was nice and it was easy to see the big TVs in the bar from other places in the restaurant. The staff were professional and nice, the place was very well managed. I didn't think the cupca...
