We stopped when we saw JR. We met and talked to JR, the owner. He's a real country gent and a great host. We had a cheeseburger with sweet potatoes and onion rings. It was one of the best cheeseburgers we had in a long time. The decor is that of a cool old farmhouse. He even has an original whiskey (but currently not used according to JR). We strongly recommend to stop for great food and a fun time. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential.
