A friendly little cafe where tlyoucan always awaits a good hospitality and a solid breakfast. I visit this small town once a year for good fishing on the lake. I always make sure I stop at Ala Carte for breakfast before I go home. It is a tiny little place where you are served with a smile and can always trust that you will get a firm meal. I had the French toast and eggs and bacon. The prices are quite cheap and th... read more.
