The food was delicious. Service was fast and friendly. Prepare the price for seafood is by the rough. I don't think it's Clam Haven's fault that it's just a sign of the time we live in. I would recommend this place to anyone looking for a seafood look. read more. What F doesn't like about Clam Haven:

Par for the course as far as roadside seafood goes in (inland) southern New Hampshire. I'm told it was excellent back in the day with a previous owner. The fish and chips were nowhere near what my family considers proper. The onion rings were rough. The lobster roll was average (maybe slightly below average). Overall, not worth the time and money, but if you're looking for a fix in a pinch, it'll do. read more.
