We stayed here on our way back to Lexington from Lumberton. Right at I-95, this was our first stop at a Quincy in at least 25 years. We were eating back regularly the day Columbia sites were held. I always remember the yeast rolls. The absolute best I ever had and many of them. Well, they still do it!! OMG. You're stupid. This location also offers honey dipped croissants. The buffet is full of everything you would ex... read more. What User doesn't like about Quincy's Family Steakhouse:

Stopped here while I was in the area and would definitely dine here again. Great spot for some southern style food in a cafeteria/buffet set up. The warm rolls and croissants with the honey butter were an added bonus. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only flavorful meals, but also a large and comprehensive assortment of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, They also present nice South American meals to you in the menu. Not to be left out is the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, there are also delicious vegetarian recipes in the menu.
