Several positive experiences. The first time we had come to breakfast, both my children ate all their food that was not heard and our food was delicious. I recommend the beef and haash, if available this day. The next time we came to dinner, we just came out of the hospital and didn't know we were there shortly before graduation. Normally, if that happens, people are rude, you're hurried, or the food isn't great at a... read more.
