Good food, decent price, friendly staff. We had to wait almost an hour until our food comes and nobody offered an explanation or apology for the delay. In addition, the restaurant is worth a refresh. read more. What User doesn't like about Blackberry Patch:

A nice busy morning, figured the food had to be good so we waited 28 minutes before the food was served. Only it was served to the table next to us where the people looked at our food and waited to send it back. The waiter took it away, came back to our table to apologize that it would be longer because it went to the wrong table and they had to make it again. Barely a minute later they brought the food back, it appe... read more.
