I eat Mexican food at least 3-4 times a week and found this diamond in the middle of the pleasant hill was a blessing. The staff was great, my husband forgot to leave our server, he can't have a red sauce, but if we let her come to our plates, she was so sweet and understood. I can honestly say it was the BEST Chile Rellenos I had.

We'll visit her again and again. read more. A visit to El Puerto becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, Especially, many customers are looking forward to the diverse, delectable Mexican cuisine.
