The White Hall McDonald's is only approx. 5 minutes away from us, and the Sheridan location is approx. 15-20 minutes away, but I would rather make the trip to Sheridan because I never had problems with the service.

Everyone was always polite and friendly to us, and when a mistake is made, they take care of enough to fix it. Once I moved to Curbside and had to wait only 5 minutes, but the worker apologized for my wait... read more.

The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is free WLAN. What jessie padgett doesn't like about McDonald's:

Most of the workers are friendly and treat customers with respect and kindness but there are a few workers that need to be more kind and respectful of others. The food and service could use some improvement. I've had to change my review of this eating place and will definitely change my review as needed. Kid-friendliness: Could use some improvement Parking: Could use some improvement Wheelchair accessibility: Needs a... read more. If
