This is certainly a nice place to have a fancy birthday or anniversary dinner. The lamb was so succulent and the New York strip is so tender. If you want a cocktail, get the blackberry press. It's so refreshing. The food is so delicious and I love how it comes in courses. The service is also wonderful. They were so understanding when we asked them if we could take our third course to go because our babysitter needed... read more. What Shawn Sudz doesn't like about Highlands:

The view is amazing. You won't get anything like it in Detroit. The staff and service is very friendly and accommodating, no complaints can be made for that. The food however is a let down, and not worth the price you pay. The steaks were recommended medium rare, but came out medium. They didn't have much flavor, I'm not sure they were seasoned at all. A cool experience to have been able to see the entire city of Detroit... read more. During a meal, a good drink is essential. In this gastropub, you not only get delicious dishes from the menu but also a comprehensive and particularly good diversity of good beers and other alcoholic beverages that go well with the food. At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Moreover, there are fine American meals, such as burgers and grilled meat, You can also discover nice South American menus on the menu.
