I'm a new Adda Coffee customer and their lattes are great! I've only been here a couple of times, but each time has been great. Definitely one of the better coffee shops in Pittsburgh. Their coffee shop is very cute with a-lot of plants. They also have seating areas as well if you need to do some work there. The baristas are also very nice which is a plus. I got an iced oat milk lavender latte and it was delicious. An... read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Michael Wolff doesn't like about Adda Coffee Tea House:

Used to be my favorite neighborhood coffee shop, but they've consistently been overpriced for basic coffee, understaffed, and never have fresh baked goods in the AM read more. At Adda Coffee Tea House in Pittsburgh, there's a delicious brunch in the morning where you can eat as much as you want enjoy, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
