What User likes about Nila's Place: After discovering that they were closed on Wednesday and Thursday, we finally stopped by for breakfast before heading home from our week long stay at the French Lick Springs Hotel. Very casual, family atmosphere. It's a small place so expect a wait at peaktimes. But service was friendly and fast. The food was delicious as was the coffee. Very affordable prices . Generous portions.They serve breakfast all day as well... read more. What Jim Settecase doesn't like about Nila's Place:

We made an impromptu stop here one morning while in the area. It's very small inside but they were able to accommodate our party of 6 adults. No real complaints (this is a mom n pop greasy spoon diner-good, inexpensive food) but they were cash only at thetime we visited and that was a bit of an inconvenience. Not sure if that's normal and we just didn't see that online before, orif it was a fluke. Our waitress was at... read more.
