We came to the Grove to hit the farmers market, after the farmers market we walked around exploring. It's been a while and so much has changed. We stumbled upon Taco Way and even though we had eaten already we thought it was too cool not to stop in. We stopped in to a very empty restaurant, the staff was super friendly. We had a round of drinks only. We didn't get to try the food though. The drinks were great and the... read more.

When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available for free. What summersail doesn't like about Taco Way:

The chorizo queso with fried floor chips was very good and the best part of the meal. The chicken fajitas were very poor quality. Tiny pieces of chicken and mainly onions and peppers. Hard to even find the chicken. The carnitas enchiladas was a large serving and okay, not great. Service was poor even though it was not busy. Prices were average, but not for the quality. Get excited about the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide variety of beers from the region and the whole world. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
