I enjoyed the authenticity and late night Korean restaurant bar feel. The food was delicious with all the right amount of spice and flavor, along with the sides complementing the main dishes. The customer service was very bare bones with a "What do you want" and "Here's your food" approach". It did take a while for the food to come in along with our sides, but it was well worth the wait! Would definitely come back fo... read more. What John

Alhelm doesn't like about Arirang:

Food was great, our server was a bitter angry woman who didn't want to answer questions or give recommendations. I came in for my birthday, i made a reservation for 10 people. When I got there it seemed like she was surprised a big party was coming in. The bill for the meal was $387. I didn't argue, but after doing the math I realized we were over charged about $120, not including gratuity. Like I said, everyone enjoy... read more. The Arirang in San Antonio serves various fine seafood menus, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Korean menus like Kimchi, Bibimbap and Jjigae, which are typical, always find their way onto the menu and the plates of the visitors, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
