A coworker recommended this place. I went for lunch and was seated pretty quickly on the outside patio which was my preference. I was delighted to find lunch options at $15 and below. My server was extremely professional and courteous and extended a taste of one of the wines. I decided to order a Chardonnay and the beef lunch special. It was great. Comes in a large size and I had to box leftovers. Overall I was very p... read more. The absolute worst service I have ever had. We waited at our table for 40 minutes, and placed a to go order because our serve never came back. We ended up having to place our to go order with the hostess who took care of the rest of the transaction. After waiting 30 more minutes we find out our order was never placed after we paid our bill. It was the worst dining experience I have had in quite sometime and will not... read more.
