small, comfortable place with attentive, friendly service. we were there for lunch and I was a little disappointed that there were no lunch specialties, but the regular offers are numerous. we chose suppen. please note the chili icon of bon bo suppe because it certainly spicy waiter warned me! but it was so tasty that the bark broth was rich in seasoning and heat and thin noodles. I decided to add chicken little slic... read more. What User doesn't like about Vietnam Gardens:

Really disappointed with this. Ordered the winemakers soup and spring rolls (with shrimps as the filling that cost a dollar extra), total about 25 dollars after tax, which is an EXORBITANT amount for these two items. The winner came with salad, that was a first, but also it had strange black marks that I think were bacterial leaf spots. The spring rolls were probably made fresh, although very understated and TINY. Fo... read more. The customers love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Vietnam Gardens from San Antonio, with its unconventional Asian fusion cuisine - the perfect blend of familiar meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, The visitors of the establishment also appreciate the extensive selection of differing coffee and tea specialties that the restaurant has to offer. It's precisely the freshness and lightness paired with the typical spices that not only brings delectable dishes to the table, but also puts the visitors into a pleasant holiday feeling for a short time, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
