What Raz likes about Dunkin': I can not speak about the coffee as I don't drink it, but the place was clean, well lit and still in pretty pristine condition from when it was built not too long ago. I had to wait despite being the only person in line because of the drive through focus of the store. Otherwise, the service was courteous and quick once the order was placed. read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its visitors. What Tammie Stammers doesn't like about Dunkin': The time I spent waiting in line wasn't worth the outrageously overpriced jelly donut I bought especially since it was kinda stale. Save your time help free up the traffic on Rt 5! read more. A visit to Dunkin' is particularly valuable due to the large variety of coffee and tea specialties, for breakfast they serve a extensive breakfast here. Most menus are prepared in the shortest time for you and served, and you can try fine American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
