Picked up some pastries for my wife for Valentine's Day. I stopped by later in the afternoon around three, but they still had a decent selection. We had the chocolate rosemary hazelnut cookie, the honey cake, the raspberry jam croissant, and the lemon strawberry poppy muffin. Baked good we're great across the board. I liked the creativity and that everything had an interesting twist. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What Jackie S doesn't like about Bakeri:

Love their sweets and breakfast seemed like a good idea but if you order the eggs with trout for 14 you'll spend the same amount of minutes sifting thru fish bones. Not a fun way to start the day after spending on an already small portion of bland food I had to meticulously dissect to not eat bones. I usually don't leave reviews unless I am super pleased but this was a particularly poor experience. read more. Bakeri from Brooklyn is a snug café, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a steaming coffee or a sweet chocolate, here they serve a appetizing brunch for breakfast. Sometimes you may not want to eat a lot, in this case one of the fine sandwiches, a small salad or another snack is just right, There are also fresh breads and snacks, complemented by a variety of cold and hot beverages.
