Walking into Zapatas brought back memories of several family-owned Mexican restaurants I visit when touring south of the U.S. border. I loved the music and colorful interior that greeted us and the selection of queso and salsas did a great job at whetting our appetite for the meal to come. The portions were generous and I was not disappointed with my Chicken Taco Soup which came with a side of rice. The aromas and fl... read more. What

Kevin Hunter doesn't like about Zapatas:

On Sept 21 I ate at the restaurant and the bill was $60. I paid with my bank card. Over the next 3 few weeks I noticed that I was charged 4 times for my meal I went in to talk to the manager about it. I was told it was a software glitch and it would be a week until i reeived the money back. I asked for some form of compensation since they have $180 dollars of my money. I was informed that there was nothing he could d... read more. Anticipate the varied, scrumptious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), with their spicy savory sauces and spices, the Spanish meals are a favorite among the visitors.
