Holy sweet tooth Batman! This is the very best sweet shop/bakery I have ever encountered. If you want quality service and a mind blowing pastry or four (consider pairing with their iced coffee), this is the place to be. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Tony Johnson doesn't like about The Sweet:

Could do a better job at decorating cakes for the price. Their cakes look and taste the same as Sam's. Pretty mediocre. From what I hear a Food Network baker is coming in to town that might just put them out of business. read more. An additional service offered by the restaurant is the catering service for visitors, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. Not to be left out is the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
