Surprised the best jerk chicken I have had in Jacksonville. Was not wet and grilled. Of course ordering Jamaican food there is a wait. I went here some year back I was disappointed with mushy rice. This time was different and I was impressed. Inside doesn't say much but the food is the main thing read more. What Nichel'le Robinson doesn't like about Famous Jamaican Jerk Seafood:

The food here usually be very moist, juicy, and covered with a lot of gravy on everything, but these past two times of getting the jerk chicken plate, the chicken has been so dry, the rice and peas are dry just everything dry! Literally no tap of gravy on the rice nor jerk chicken. read more. Various fine seafood dishes are served by the Famous Jamaican Jerk Seafood from Jacksonville.
