Recommend: their signature hot chocolate was good, the place is really nice inside, the service was good, the lemon cake was as good as it looked unfortunately would skip on it. The hot chocolate was good but it is a bit pricey for 1 small cup, a few other places around Chicago make as good or even better double amount for similar price, but then again this is basically downtown of the city. If in the area and wan... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities.

What Ajimon Thomas doesn't like about L.a. Burdick Handmade Chocolates:

This review is based on just the Chocolate section of the shop. We did not have coffee or pastries. It is just an over priced chocolate store. The amount of chocolate you get for the price is super less. We ended up getting two boxes they were nice but nothing outstanding. Also, out of the three staff that was in there, only one was friendly and helpful. The other two (especially the guy) just stared us in a rude way... read more. The large diversity of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to L.a. Burdick Handmade Chocolates,

The sugar-sweet desserts of the local also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. Furthermore, they serve you delectable menus in French style, You'll also find tasty bites, cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages here.
